This booklet explains some of the processes in place at MoreLife, including:

- Why we collect information about you
- How your records are used
- How we keep your records confidential
- Your rights
- Who we may share your information with

Why We Collect Information About You

We aim to provide you with the highest quality of health care. To do this we must keep records about you, your health and the care we have provided, or plan to provide you.

These records may include:

- Basic details about you, such as address, date of birth, next of kin
- Contact we have had with you such as appointments
- Notes and reports about your health
- Details and records about your treatment and care
- Your results and outcomes from MoreLife appointments or programmes
- Relevant information from people who care for you and know you well, such as health professionals and relatives

We follow NHS good practice and will:

- Make it clear to you what we are going to record about you
- Provide you with a copy of any letters we are writing about you
- Show you what we have recorded about you, if you ask

How Your Records Are Used

We use your records to:

- Provide a good basis for services we provide to you
- Allow you to work with us when providing services
- Ensure any services we provide you with are safe and effective, and the advice we provide is appropriate and relevant to you
- Work effectively with others that may be providing you with services, treatment or advice

How We Keep Your Records Confidential

We have a duty to:

- Maintain full and accurate records of the care we provide to you
- Keep records about you confidential, secure and accurate
- Provide information in a format that is accessible to you (e.g. in large type if you are partially sighted or in the appropriate language).

We will not share information that identifies you for any reason, unless:

- You ask us to do so
- We ask and you give us specific permission
- We have to do this by law;
- We have special permission because we believe that the reasons for sharing are so important that they override our obligation of confidentiality (e.g. to prevent someone from being seriously harmed)

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLE IS THAT WE ARE HOLDING YOUR RECORDS IN STRICT CONFIDENCE
